cane Bob, under which our county received a presidential disaster declaration.

Courage said, the officials in Washington, "unaware of the extent of the damage," are reconsidering their earlier rejection of an application for aid in restoring Beach Boulevard.

"We presented weather maps and pictures of this area since May 23 to the Federal Transportation Department. A transportation executive said he is pretty impressed and did not realize the extent of the damage," Courage said Saturday.

"He said he will reconsider the earlier rejection of assistance," he added.

"Apparently, the application is being reconsidered. We got a warm welcome, and everyone in Washington was friendly and receptive. I think things look favorable," the supervisor added.

In connection with the Central Rail Corridor Commission, Bennett said he and representatives of cities in Harrison and Jackson counties also spoke to representatives of the congressional delegation, in addition to Carl Bowers of the U.S. Secretary of Transportation office.

"What the rail commission needs is seed money," Bennett stated.

"Though railroad improvement has begun," he continued, "many problems still exist."

"We need funds to finance studies that will find solutions to our problems," he asserted.

Bay-St. Louis has approximately nine railroad crossings and trains are sometimes so long that they prevent emergency vehicles from passing, the mayor explained.

if the board could purchase the bus without letting bids on the vehicle, or if that action would be "outside the law."

"I don't think we should make any motion to purchase the bus unless we are sure we are well within the law," Cuevas told the board.

Board Member Louie Ladner had made a motion to purchase the bus, stipulating that purchase would take place only if the purchase was within the law.

The motion was seconded by Johnny Banks, but after discussion both members withdrew their action.

Ladner then suggested the board advertise for bids and made the suggestion into a motion.

Before a board member could second the motion, Assistant Superintendent and Transportation Supervisor Mike Necaise telephoned the State Department of Education for a ruling on the matter.

Randolph said Necaise had learned the purchase could be made without advertising for bids, and Ladner withdrew his second motion.

He then moved that the board purchase the bus, and the motion was seconded by Banks.

Banks said he wanted air conditioning in the vehicle, but the cost, Randolph revealed, would be $1,500.

The board unanimously approved purchase of the bus without air conditioning.

The board Saturday also discussed new state legislation which makes prayerful meditation in public schools voluntary.

The legislators passed a bill in July which allows school children to meditate on a voluntary basis, Randolph told the board, but added the American Civil Liberties Union has sent him a letter threatening to file suit against any school which allows the meditation.

Cuevas moved that Board Attorney Joseph Gex be asked to research the new law and determine what action the board can take in allowing school children to meditate.

A parent at the meeting asked if any precautionary measures may be taken by the board to prevent outbreaks of head lice.

Most elementary schools in Hancock County are experiencing outbreaks of head lice, Randolph said, and steps to eliminate the outbreak are being taken.

The parent suggested the board declare registration day each year "head lice day" and have school nurses inspect children before school begins.

The board recently adopted a policy which requires any child who has head lice to leave school and not be readmitted without a certification from the County Health Department declaring the child to be lice-free.

The board will meet again Saturday at 9 a.m.

Engineers assist in aftermath

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is sending inspectors into hurricane-damaged areas of Alabama and Mississippi to help those who need Corp. permits to repair or rebuild structures on or near the water or to do dredge or fill work, announced Mobile District Engineer Col. Robert H. Ryan. Corps personnel also will be available at three Federal Emergency Management Agency federal-state assistance centers to help the public attain Corps permits as needed.

These centers are in Fairhope, Alabama at the Adult Recreation Center, 352 Morphy Street; in Prichard, Alabama at the City Hall Civic Center; and in Bayou La Batre, Alabama at the St. Margaret's School.

In addition, a special interagency committee has been established in Mobile to expedite the granting of permits for structures damaged by Hurricane Frederic. Agencies represented on the committee are: Environmental Protection Agency; U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service; National Marine Fisheries Service; Alabama water improvement Commission; Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources; Alabama Coastal Area Board; Mississippi Bureau of Pollution Control; and the Mississippi Bureau of Marine Resources.

The concurrence of these agencies is necessary for the Corps to issue a permit. Don Conlon, chief of the Mobile District's Regulatory Functions Branch, said these and other measures have been taken to insure that those who want to rebuild after Hurricane Frederic and need a Corps permit to do so can get one as soon as possible.

Conlon said that, as previously announced, those who are repairing or rebuilding structures damaged or destroyed by Frederic to their original configuration and alignment may do so without a Corps permit if the structure was permitted originally or was built prior to December 18, 1968.

USM leads state in enrollment

Final figures compiled by Mississippi State University show a three-percent overall increase and a one percent on-campus increase in enrollment for the 1979 fall semester.

A total of 12,882 students are currently receiving direct educational services from MSU, as opposed to 12,500 last year. The university continues to lead all state institutions in enrollment.

Enrollment on the Starkville campus is 11,374, or 109 more than last year. Ninety-five percent of these additional students are female and over 60 percent are freshmen. Non-resident enrollment at Starkville increased by 16.5 percent.

Enrollment at the university's branch centers includes 205 at MSU - Universities Center in Jackson, 656 at Meridian and a total of 123 in resident and engineering programs at Vicksburg. Both Jackson and Meridian are degree-granting institutions.

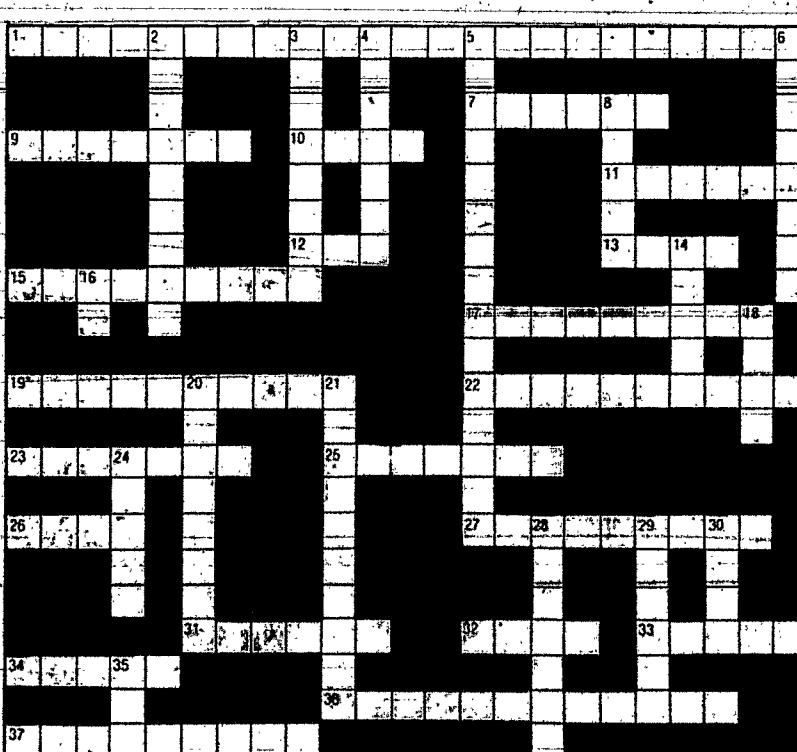

"We are greatly encouraged by the upswing in our enrollment this year," said Academic Vice President Robert E. Wolverton. "I think it signifies the fact that people still do have beliefs in the benefits of higher education and that we have programs and services to respond to people's needs."

Wolverton added that he felt the enrollment figures "indicate the health of the university and the confidence in the university as both in education and research."

SSC's Brian Logan (12) outleaps a Hancock defender to catch an aerial near the end zone. HNC defender Rene Baum (86) watches from mid field

Warriors declaw Tigers

Alex Herrington (34) outdistances d'Iberville defenders as teammate Bradley Bounds (72) provides protection on a 96 yard scoring kickoff return.

By RANDY PONDER

The Bay High Tigers, with a bad case of 'fumbleitis', handed the d'Iberville Warriors a 44-7 win Friday night on the Tigers' home field.

The Warriors' first score came with 3:35 remaining in the first stanza as Running Back James Evans ran the ball to paydirt from 12 yards out after a Tiger fumble was pounced on by d'Iberville.

Chad Holgen's conversion was good, as it was to be on five other occasions that night, and the Warriors led 7-0.

On Bay High's next possession they again bobbled the ball and lost it to d'Iberville.

It took only one play for Evans to score again on a pitch-out from Quarterback John Whitfield.

Evans shrugged off two tacklers hanging on to him in the final five yards from glory. The score was quickly 14-0.

Bay High was again stopped on their next series with an interception by ever-present Evans on the Warrior 12 yard line.

The Tiger defense was able to confine the d'Iberville eleven this time and took over possession of the ball on the d'Iberville 39.

Quarterback Chuck Benigno led his team to the 16 yard line before another fumble killed that drive.

Donald Ginn shared the signal calling duties occasionally with Benigno for the Tigers.

Again the Tiger defense roared up and shut off d'Iberville, this time with a pass interception by Hewitt Parsons.

Bay moved to the 26, where they faced a fourth-and-eleven situation.

A field goal fake failed, but the cats used one of their nine lives as a personal foul infraction against the Warriors gave the Tigers a second chance from the 14 yard line.

Here the Warriors started looking for scalps, and stopped the Tigers cold, taking the ball over on downs.

The Warriors fumbled several plays later giving the ball back to Bay High, but Benigno threw an errant pass on the very next play and d'Iberville regained possession again.

A short time later Bobby Weaver, who was alone in the end zone, caught a 29 yard aerial for the final score of the first half which ensured the Warrior lead, 21-0.

"The score makes them look like a superior team," first-year Head Coach James "Smuffy" Smith said.

"I think we could have scored 44 points if we had as many turnovers," he added.

The second half went similar to the first, with the exception of a Bay High score.

The bright spot for the Tigers occurred following a d'Iberville score and ensuing kickoff, when Alex Herrington returned the boot 94 yards to score.

A conversion made the score 35-7 d'Iberville.

The Warriors added insult to injury by scoring again and adding a safety to their nightly tally, rounding out the scoring at 44-7.

"The biggest factor of the game was our turnovers. We moved the ball, but our lack of consistency is what hurt us the most," Smith said following the game.

When asked what effect a one-sided game such as Friday's contest would have on a team, Smith said, "We have a good team. A team that wants to win. I believe we can come back, hopefully next week against Long Beach."

The Tigers lost four of six fumbles and had five aeriels intercepted. d'Iberville lost a lone fumble and a single interception at the hands of the Tigers.

Bay High now boasts a record of 2-2, and contends against Long Beach Friday night.

Senner scores hat-trick

By RICH ADAMS
Sports Editor

St. Stanislaus rocked the Hancock North Central Hawks Friday Night as they scored twice within two minutes of the opening period, recording a resounding victory in the bitter county rivalry, 34-14.

Veteran Fullback Scott Senner scored three times in the rout, seeming to shrug off Hawk defenders on his run to paydirt.

"We were pleased with the game we played," said SSC first-year Head Coach Barry Jones.

"We played a very emotional first period. We played almost entirely on emotions," he continued.

Hancock's quarterback did a fine job. So did Henry. They have a fine ball club, and the score did not indicate the ball club they do have," Jones added.

Both of our backs did a fine job, and the offensive line did a great job opening holes for us," he continued.

"Mike Horn and Joe Church did an especially fine job on the line," he added.

"We ran a power T offense against them this game, and that is the first time we have done that this year. It added a new dimension, opening holes and adding a few blockers," Jones explained.

HNC Head Coach Irvin Favre lamented over the loss of Split End Byron Ladner last week, a factor which he claims effected his squad.

"That made it tough," Favre said. "This is overall the best team SSC has had ever," he continued.

"We were hurt in the first period, but played a fine game in the remaining three quarters," he added.

Hancock kicked off to the Rock-A-Chaws to begin the game, the kickoff returned by Jeff Kergosien to the SSC 33 yard line.

Keith Pfister, another star SSC running back, took the ball to the 38 yard line for a gain of five, followed by a 52 yard run to glory by Senner.

Senner took the ball off tackle on the right side and stepped over many HNC defenders, then broke a late tackle by Hawk Running Back and Deep Safety Willy Santiago, carrying the ball across the goal line.

Juan Betanzo's conversion attempt was true, and the Rocks led 14-0 with 10:58 remaining in the first period.

Betanzo booted a ball into the end zone on the ensuing kickoff, and the Hawks began from their own 20 yard line.

After two short gains and an incomplete Bobby Devaughn to Rene Baum pass, Faron Hoda dropped back to punt.

Lee Klein ran over a Hawk defender and blocked the punt, and his teammate, George Cocoran, picked-up the ball and rambled 17 yards into the end zone for another Stanislaus score with 8:28 remaining in the first stanza. Santiago returned the kickoff 22 yards to give the HNC eleven the ball on their own 27 yard line, and the Hawks began a march downfield.

Devaughn threaded the needle as he hit Baum between three SSC defenders on the SSC 45 for a 23 yard gain and a first down.

Hawk Halfback Lloyd Henry was dropped on a draw play for a loss of six yards as SSC's Charles Davis fired into the backfield to make the tackle.

The Hawks then attempted a double reverse, and the ball was bobbled by Santiago.

Charles Gullyot recovered the ball for the Rock-A-Chaws, and set up the third touchdown in the first period.

Pfister took a pitch-out from Quarterback Gary Sotak, which he dropped, recovered on the first bounce, and turned into an 11 yard gain and first down.

On the following play, Senner ran over numerous Hawk defenders to score with 5:34 remaining in the first period from 18 yards out.

Betanzo's kick was again through the uprights, and the Rocks led 21-0.

Hancock started a drive again on their own 23 yard line, highlighted by a Devaughn to Santiago pass for 45 yards and a Henry romp for a 47 yard gain.

Henry then took a hand off from the two yard line and scored with 2:10 remaining in the first quarter.

A Keith Glass conversion was off to the left, and the Hawks were on the scoreboard 21-6.

The HNC score did not ease the Rock driving force, however, as the momentum from the initial three touchdowns pushed the SSC eleven to score again.

Pfister, who displayed a tremendous running ability as he gained a total of 128 yards during the game, ran for 34 yards on two plays, breaking tackles as he went along.

Senner, who also had an outstanding evening, running for a net 146 yards, added 11 to his total as he picked up a first down in HNC territory.

Sotak elected to pitch out to Senner for another gain, this time of 32 yards, and then went with the 21 yard full-back again to score from nine yards out.

Betanzo's again was successful on the conversion, and the Rocks were ahead 28-6 with 10:30 remaining in the half.

Hancock took the ball on their own 28 yard line and on combinations of Santiago and Henry runs, and connected a flea flicker to Santiago for a gain of six and a first down.

On the next play, however, an aerial attempt to Gullyot, Rock-A-Chaw Defensive Back Brian Logan intercepted the pass and the SSC eleven again gained possession of the ball.

After a clipping penalty and an 11 yard loss on a keeper by Sotak, the Rocks punted.

Hancock had the ball on their own 26 yard line, and pulled a real 'razzle-dazzle' play against the SSC defenders.

Devaughn handed off to Henry, who dropped back to the right of the line, pitched out to Santiago near the middle of the backfield, who in turn pitched the ball back to Devaughn at the extreme left of the backfield near the sideline, who drilled a 35 yard pass to Baum.

A facemask and roughing the passer call against SSC put the ball on the Stanislaus 25 yard line and offered the Hawks a scoring opportunity.

The HNC squad was unable to move the ball further, however, and gave the ball up on downs.

The half ended during a drive by the Rocks, and SSC entered the lockerrooms with a 28-6 edge.

Hancock received the ball on a kickoff upon resumption of the contest, and began moving toward paydirt.

The Hawks got within the SSC 25 yard line after a series of passes and runs, but a Devaughn to Baum pass was intercepted, by Rock-A-Chaw Dave Boos to end the drive and take the scoring pressure from the Rocks.

Stanislaus was penalized half the distance to the goal line on a holding call, and proceeded to move from their own six yard line.

Senner came to action again, running 15 yards for a first down, and then Senner and Pfister combined for a total of 29 yards in runs.

Sotak hit Betanzo in the end zone from 33 yards out with 2:20 remaining in the third stanza for a score on a lofting aerial.

Betanzo's kick was off and the Rocks led 34-6.

After exchanging the ball twice, Hancock took a punt on the Rock 46. Santiago picked up 16 yards on the ground, then nabbed an aerial for an extra two yards.

Henry added five yards, which put the ball on the nine yard line, and Devaughn kept the ball to score on a wide sweep around the left side.

A Devaughn to Baum bullet pass added the two point conversion, making the score 44-6.

Stanislaus took the ball for a drive which ate up most of the remainder of the game, but a Sean Logan pass to Carlos Gutierrez was picked off by Baum on the HNC 12 yard line.

A determined HNC eleven moved the ball downfield on a final attempt to score, and on a series of runs and passes got to the one yard line just as time ran out.

The Rocks, now 3-1 for the season, hosts undefeated d'Iberville next week at Rock Stadium.

The Hawks will enjoy a week off before facing d'Iberville on Oct. 19.

Senner scores hat trick

Rocks rout Hawks in annual rivalry

By RICH ADAMS
Sports Editor

St. Stanislaus rocked the Hancock North Central Hawks Friday Night as they scored twice within two minutes of the opening period, recording a resounding victory in the bitter county rivalry, 34-14.

Veteran Fullback Scott Senner scored three times in the rout, assisting to shrug off Hawk defenders on his runs to paydirt.

"We were pleased with the game we played," said SSC first-year Head Coach Barry Jones.

"We played a very emotional first period. We played almost entirely on emotions," he continued.

Hancock's quarterback did a fine job. So did Henry. They have a fine ball club, and the score did not indicate the ball club they do have," Jones added.

Both of our backs did a fine job, and the offensive line did a great job opening holes for us," he continued.

"Mike Horn and Joe Church did an especially fine job on the line," he added.

"We ran a power T offense against them this game, and that is the first time we have done that this year. It added a new dimension, opening holes and adding a few blockers," Jones explained.

HNC Head Coach Irvin Favre lamented over the loss of Split End Byron Ladner last week, a factor which he claims effected his squad.

"That made it tough," Favre said. "This is overall the best team SSC has had ever," he continued.

"We were hurt in the first period, but played a fine game in the remaining three quarters," he added.

Hancock kicked off to the Rock-A-Chaws to begin the game, the kickoff returned by Jeff Kergosien to the SSC 33 yard line.

Keith Pfister, another star SSC running back, took the ball to the 38 yard line for a gain of five, followed by a 62 yard run to glory by Senner.

Senner took the ball off tackle on the right side and stepped over many HNC defenders, then broke a late tackle by Hawk Running Back and Deep Safety, Willy Santiago, carrying the ball across the goal line.

Juan Betanzo's conversion attempt was true, and the Rocks led 14-0 with 10:58 remaining in the first period.

Betanzos booted the ball into the end zone on the ensuing kick off, and the Hawks began from their own 20 yard line.

After two short gains and an incomplete Bobby Devaughn to Rene Baum pass, Aaron Hoda dropped back to punt.

Lee Klein ran over a Hawk defender and blocked the punt, and his teammate, George Corcoran, picked up the ball and rambled 17 yards into the end zone for another Stanislaus score with 9:28 remaining in the first stanza.

Santiago returned the kickoff 22 yards to give the HNC eleven the ball on their own 27 yard line, and the Hawks began a march downfield.

Devaughn threaded the needle as he hit Baum between three SSC defenders on the SSC 45 for a 23 yard gainer and a first down.

Hawk Halfback Lloyd Henry was dropped on a draw play for a loss of six yards as SSC's Charles Davis fired into the backfield to make the tackle.

The Hawks then attempted a double reverse, and the ball was bobbled by Santiago.

Charles Gullyot recovered the ball for the Rock-A-Chaws, and set up the third touchdown in the first period.

Pfister took a pitch-out from Quarterback Gary Sotak, which he dropped, recovered on the first bounce, and turned into an 11 yard gain and first down.

On the following play, Senner ran over numerous Hawk defenders to score with 5:34 remaining in the first period from 18 yards out.

Betanzo's kick was again through the uprights, and the Rocks led 21-0.

Hancock started a drive again on their own 23 yard line, highlighted by a Devaughn to Santiago pass for 45 yards and a Henry romp for a 47 yard gain.

Henry then took a hand off from the two yard line and scored with 2:10 remaining in the first quarter.

A Keith Glass conversion was off to the left, and the Hawks were on the scoreboard 21-6.

The HNC score did not faze the Rock driving force, however, as the momentum from the initial three touchdowns pushed the SSC eleven to score again.

Pfister, who displayed a tremendous running ability, as he gained a total of 126 yards during the game, ran for 34 yards on two plays, breaking tackles as he went along.

Senner, who also had an outstanding evening, running for a net 146 yards, added 11 to his total as he picked up a first down in HNC territory.

Sotak elected to pitch out to Senner for another gain, this time of 12 yards, and then went with the fullback back again to score from nine yards out.

Betanzos again was successful on the conversion, and the Rocks were ahead 28-6 with 10:30 remaining in the half.

Hancock took the ball on their own 28 yard line and on combinations of Santiago and Henry runs, and connected a flea flicker to Santiago for a gain of six and a first down.

On the next play, however, an aerial attempt to Gullyot, Rock-A-Chaw Defensive Back Brian Logan intercepted the pass and the SSC eleven again gained possession of the ball.

After a clipping penalty and an 11 yard loss on a keeper by Sotak, the Rocks punted.

Hancock had the ball on their own 28 yard line, and pulled a real 'razzle-dazzle' play against the SSC defenders.

Devaughn handed off to Henry, who dropped back to the right of the line, pitched out to Santiago near the middle of the backfield, who in turn pitched the ball back to Devaughn at the extreme left of the backfield near the sideline, who drilled a 35 yard pass to Baum.

A facemask and roughing the passer call against SSC put the ball on the Stanislaus 25 yard line and offered the Hawks a scoring opportunity.

The HNC squad was unable to move the ball further, however, and gave the ball up on downs.

The half ended during a drive by the Rocks, and SSC entered the locker rooms with a 28-6 edge.

Hancock received the ball on a kickoff upon resumption of the contest, and began moving toward paydirt.

The Hawks got within the SSC 25 yard line after a series of passes and runs, but a Devaughn to Baum pass was intercepted by Rock-A-Chaw Dave Boos to end the drive and take the scoring pressure from the Rocks.

Stanislaus was penalized half the distance to the goal line on a holding call, and proceeded to move from their own six yard line.

Senner came to action again, fanning 15 yards for a first down, and then Senner and Pfister combined for a total of 29 yards in runs.

Sotak hit Betanzos in the end zone from 33 yards out with 2:20 remaining in the third stanza for a score on a lofting aerial.

Betanzo's kick was off and the Rocks led 34-6.

After exchanging the ball twice, Hancock took a punt on the Rock 46.

Santiago picked up 16 yards on the ground, then nabbed an aerial for an extra two yards.

Henry added five yards, which put the ball on the nine yard line, and Devaughn kept the ball to score on a wide sweep around the left side.

A Devaughn to Baum bullet pass added the two point conversion, making the score 44-6.

Stanislaus took the ball for a drive which ate up most of the remainder of the game, but a Sean Logan pass to Carlos Gutierrez was picked off by Baum on the HNC 12 yard line.

A determined HNC eleven moved the ball downfield on a final attempt to score, and on a series of runs and passes got to the one yard line just as time ran out.

The Rocks, now 3-1 for the season, hosts undefeated d'Iberville next week at Rock Stadium.

The Hawks will enjoy a week off before facing d'Iberville on Oct. 19.

Commission oks Port Bienville airstrip

By LESLIE WILLIAMS

Missouri-based Mid Continent Aircraft Corporation's request to use 2,500 feet of Port and Harbor Road in the Port Bienville Industrial complex as a temporary runway was approved Thursday night by the Port and Harbor Commission.

The commission's approval followed an additional request from International Paper Co., which hired Mid Continent to fertilize several acres of forest in Hancock County.

Dale Fitzhugh, field supervisor for Mid Continent's aerial fertilizing project in Hancock County, said the road would be used as a temporary runway and would enable the company to load fertilizer onto the airplane.

Fitzhugh said use of the road would save the company "ferrying time," and thus money.

The road would be used on week-ends when traffic was at a minimum, Fitzhugh added.

In addition the field supervisor said he would have a guard, equipped with walkie-talkies, placed at each end of the section of road being used.

He said the temporary runway will be used for approximately seven working days, during which time the company will fertilize some 45,000 acres of Pinelands near the Hancock County Industrial complex.

"We are also giving serious consideration to locating an office at Stennis Airport," Fitzhugh said.

In water dependent industry matters, Commissioner Director Wilson Webre asked representatives of the Bureau of Marine Resources to schedule a meeting with government representatives and port commissioners of all three coastal counties and Rep. Jim Simpson to discuss the creation of a new authority that would insure water-dependent industries are located on waterfront sites.

Several representatives of the bureau, including Vic Frankiewicz, program coordinator, explained the purpose of the proposed authority and the need for such an authority.

Frankiewicz told commissioners the authority would rid the port commission from its environmental headaches as far as water-dependent industries were concerned.

In other business the Commission: Assumed payment of approximately $2,400 per year in insurance premiums for the fixed-base operator at Stennis Airport. Webre said Andy Ewing, FBO at the airport, had asked "we afford him some financial relief."

Approved a six month option extension to Borg-Warner Chemicals for a site at the Port Bienville Industrial Park at a cost of $10.

Went into executive session, barring the public from the meeting. "We have confidential matters to discuss," Webre said.

Lewis, charged with two counts of forgery, and another of attempted forgery, was scheduled for Monday.

Lewis allegedly cashed two checks, one made out to Harry J. Nance of Gulfport for $496 on Aug. 1, 1977, and the other made out for James L. Baker of Mississippi City for $213 on June 3, 1977. Lewis also allegedly attempted on Sept. 2, 1977, to cash a check written for Espia Garcia of Gulfport worth $178.

On Tuesday, Oct. 9, the court is slated to hear a case involving Derray Smiley, charged with two counts of aggravated assault.

Smiley is alleged to have pulled a .357 magnum pistol on Milton Lewis and Santo A. Sauder on July 4 of this year during a heated discussion on Beach Boulevard in Waveland.

Also on Tuesday, the court is slated to hear an appeal of an earlier lower court conviction of Cheryl Garcia, who was found guilty of disturbing the peace by foul and obscene language, and trespassing.

She was convicted of the charges on June 11 before Waveland City Court Judge Lucien Gex Jr., and fined $50 for the disturbing the peace charge and $100 for trespassing.

On Wednesday, Oct. 10, Ervin Joseph Storey is to face a charge of setting fire to woods owned by W.G. Smith.

The arson allegedly took place Mar. 24 of this year.

Also slated Wednesday is the trial of Glen Eugene McBurnie, who is charged with grand larceny and burglary.

McBurnie allegedly burglarized the Hargett Construction Company on Dec. 21, 1978, taking a $75 check-writing machine and a Winchester 30-30 rifle valued at $139.

On Thursday of next week McWethy's trial is slated as the first trial of the day.

A trial of Michael Smith for alleged possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute or sell will follow McWethy's trial Thursday. Smith was arrested after Mississippi State Highway patrolmen found some 500 tablets of methaqualone (quaaludes) in the trunk of his car after he ran off Hwy. 43 while headed toward Piquette on May 17.

A trial involving Alan Cooley and Danny E. Mitchell, charged with grand larceny, is slated to follow Smith's trial Thursday.

The duo allegedly "unlawfully, wilfully, and feloniously take, steal, and carry away certain property of Ray Lockhart."

Legally took tools valued at $300.

Also Thursday, William J. Doyle will face a jury for five charges of arson. Doyle allegedly entered the home of Mrs. Jauna Gules on Hwy. 604 in Pearlinton on Feb. 13, 1977, and set it on fire.

Other homes Doyle is charged with lighting ablaze are the William Carrouche home on Adams Street on Feb. 22, 1977; the James "Jimmy" Holmes house on Jefferson Street, Nov. 22, 1977; and a home on Oaks Street owned by Carl L. Bradford on Jan. 22, 1978; all homes were in Pearlinton.

He is also charged with setting fire to the Pearlinton Court House in February 1977.

On Friday of next week the court will hear two relocation of probation cases. The following Monday, an "embellishment charge against Thayer Oliver will be heard by the court."

Ms. Oliver allegedly "converted to her own use cash payments for sale of merchandise belonging to B. B. Price Merchandise Co., Inc." between June and January 1978.

The allegations against Ms. Oliver encompassed $2175 from the company.

Also a criminal conspiracy charge allegedly involving the same cash there, as Cooley and Mitchell will face charges.

Two cases of rape and incest involving David Henry, 23, of Bay St. Louis, will be heard.

Smith is charged with a rape and incest involving a 14-year-old girl.

Also slated for the court is a case involving a charge of kidnapping.

The Chamber's Board of Directors, at its September meeting, passed a resolution requesting the Highway Department "to help alleviate the dangerous conditions which exist at the intersection."

The Bay St. Louis City Council also recently authorized the city clerk to dispatch a request to Highway Commissioner W.H. (Shag) Pyron and nominee Robert Joiner to meet in Bay St. Louis on the matter.

General Hospital and transferred to Keesler Medical Center in Biloxi, according to Harry Gilmore, Hancock General administrator.

Ms. Grant who was held for observation suffering head lacerations, was released Saturday. Gilmore reported.

The hospital official said Yarborough was treated for head lacerations and released; Florence Meyers was treated for a head injury and released; Amy Myers was treated for back injury and released; Mrs. Drackett was treated for side and neck injuries and released; and John Drackett was treated for neck injury and released.

Mobile Medic emergency personnel assisted the injured at the accident scene as well as transporting two of the injured to the hospital.

Bay St. Louis firemen responded to the accident call with Jaws of Life to help free Ms. Grant who was trapped in the Yarborough vehicle. The tool was not needed in this case, however.

Firemen also washed down leaking gasoline at the scene of the 9:35 p.m. accident.

Legally took tools valued at $300.

sessions may be necessary in other counties in the district where the balloting was challenged.

The judge said five members of the executive committee in each county where voting irregularities are considered will serve as special assistants to the court.

The proceeding case could "take some time," to complete, Leys said.

In a petition filed with the party executive committee after the election, Pyron had listed more than 100 allegations and claimed 300 ballots cast for Joiner in Wayne County were marked with pencils, which he said was illegal.

Packed School Lunches Can Be Tasty, Attractive

MISSISSIPPI STATE — If your child prefers to carry lunch to school, you can make your job a little easier, says Ann O. Rushing, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service marketing specialist.

Since a hot school lunch is planned to provide one-third of the child's daily food needs, a packed school lunch should also do the same. Include foods from each of the four groups — protein, a vegetable and/or fruit, bread and milk or milk product. Choose those with the most attractive prices within each group, she adds.

Make sandwiches in a once-a-week assembly line and freeze them for use later that week. Ingredients that freeze well include cooked egg yolk (not the white), peanut butter, cooked or canned poultry, fish or meat, dried beef, baked beans, canned crushed pineapple, lemon or orange juice, margarine, dairy sour cream and milk. Don't hold frozen sandwiches more than two weeks, she cautions.

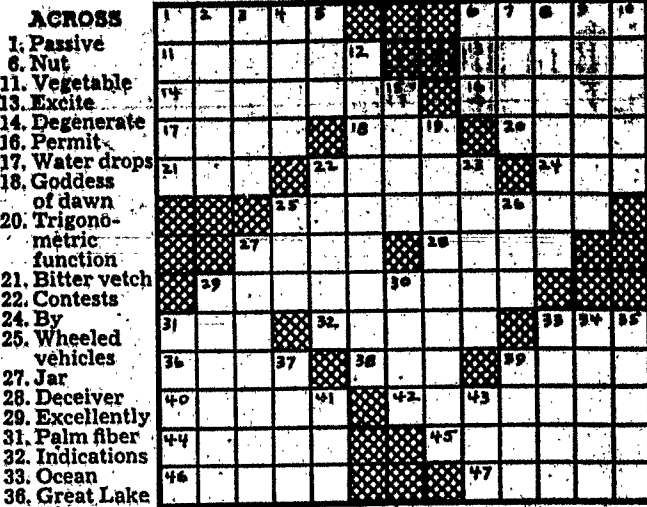

To keep sandwiches from getting soggy, spread softened margarine, peanut butter or moistened cream cheese evenly to the edge of each bread slice.

Wrap lettuce, tomato slices, pickles or other juicy items in moisture-vapor proof materials. They can be added to the sandwich just before eating.

Cut sandwiches in halves, thirds or quarters for easier eating. Smaller sandwiches also have more eye appeal.

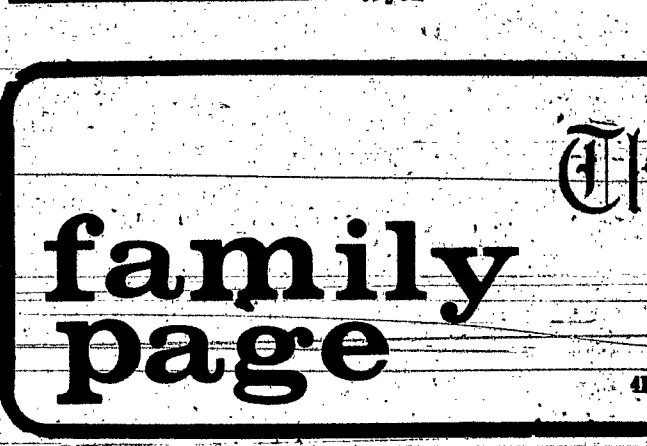

Carry milk in a thermos or buy it at school. These menu suggestions may give you ideas for go-togethers that make good lunches: peanut butter and grated carrot sandwich, hot chicken noodle soup in a thermos, pickles, fresh pears and milk; deviled ham and pineapple sandwich with lettuce, celery and carrot sticks, shoe string potatoes, oatmeal/raisin cookies and milk; and fish salad sandwich, raw vegetable strips, fruit bar cookie, apple and milk.

There'll be no turning back to the good old days

Many older people like to talk about the "Good Old Days" — and they were good old days in many ways — but how many would like to return to the days of 75 years ago? For one thing, back in my young days there were no such things as bill collectors, and so far as I know, no such thing as installment payments — at least they were not highly advertised as is the case today. If a person knocked on the door in 1900, it was a pretty sure thing that whatever he had come for, it was not to collect an installment payment, insurance premium or other debt.

There were no monthly duns for utility bills and there were few bills of other kinds in 1900. Nothing any Arab sheik or any other Eastern Potentate did would have worried anyone I knew when I was a boy.

Neither would anyone I know have cared about what the stock market did. There are many present day worries that we were free of in the Good Old Days.

Back in 1900, parents knew all the time where their children were, what they were doing, and when they would be home, if they had gone anywhere.

If a sister had a beau he would have been invited to have a seat on the front porch in summer or in the front room or parlor in cold weather.

Today the young folks get in cars — and go — no one knows where.

An old friend of mine, long since dead, used to say that the Ford car had freed the young folks from the disciplines of their parents. He blamed the automobile to a great extent for a "break-down" of morals in this country.

The automobile is today a necessity and practically no one would want to do without it, but did you ever think about what a high price we are paying for this great luxury?

Tens of thousands, even up into the hundreds of thousands, are killed yearly by cars. Certainly people lived much safer lives in the old days before the automobile came into use and when we used horses for transportation and for power.

In the Good Old Days when we used horses for power and hay and corn for energy, the roads were safe.

I never heard of even one wreck in which anyone was killed in the first 20 years of my life.

Travel was slow, but safe. Hardly anyone would want to go back to the horse and buggy days but certainly back then people lived more securely, were less hurried, breathed safer air, were more calm and serene.

For our great modern progress, you have to admit that we are paying a terrible price in lives, injuries, in cost, many think in morals, and certainly in wear-and-tear on the nervous system!

Some time back a man told me of asking an old farmer by the side of the road how to get to Pica-yune. The old man replied, "Just follow the beer cans."

There was no such litter along the roads in the old days, neither was the air we breathed polluted to such an extent that it was suspected as one of the causes of cancer and other terrible diseases.

We lived in a very different world from now in 1900. Back then we did not know of the countless death-dealing microbes and germs that lurk in everything from a stolen kiss to a drink of water.

When I went to school everyone drank water from the same dipper, from the same bucket. As a young man I once worked on a railway construction crew and we all drank from the same dipper out of the same bucket of water.

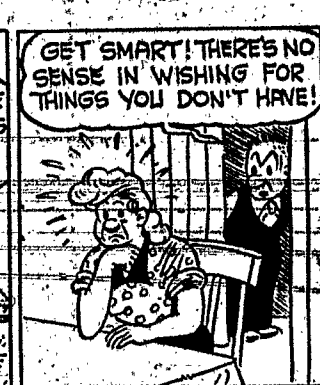

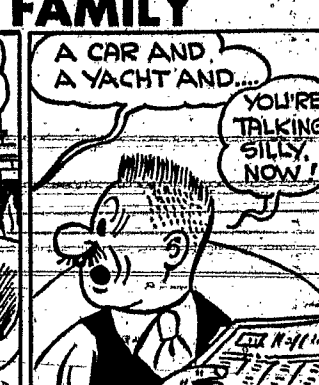

Not until recent years had one even heard the word "ecology," or been warned of the unseen and unsuspected mortal danger that the world implied.

Telephones are something else we did not have in the old days, 75 to 100 years ago. Of all the things invented to change the old days into the modern ones, the telephone can be the hardest thing to have around the house, while at the same time, when the phone was invented, the wife could room into the phone and order some expensive train ticket, all without leaving the house. And she could have the thing to order the train ticket from a roomy old depot at any time
